President's Message

I want to welcome our new members, Dianna Ferguson and Phyllis France. We hope to see you at our meetings. Thank you for joining ACAA.

Current members: Don't forget to invite your friends and fellow artists to join ACAA.

Starting in October and running through March, we will meet at 6 pm. Then we will switch back to 7 pm as we will have both Art in Amador show and the fair meetings before our regular meetings.

We have the High School Student Art Show at Amador Arts Council coming up in March. Judy Day will need some help hanging the show on Friday, March 20, and also for the reception on Friday, March 27, from 4 to 6 pm. Please call Judy at 223-1347 if you can help.

MARCH DEMONSTRATION

Julie Trail will demonstrate at our March 11 meeting to show the use of negative painting to enhance depth and perspective in watercolor painting. Julie has been painting and drawing her whole life, snatching moments between raising a family, graduate school, and teaching elementary school, to pursue the challenge of capturing on paper or canvas those elusive forms that make up the landscape. Julie teaches watercolor to adults weekly in her Sutter Creek studio. She shares the techniques she has learned to inspire others to improve their own paintings. A professional artist, Julie is a member of Gallery 10 in Sutter Creek, where she shows her work and acts as manager. She also shows her paintings at the Volcano Union Inn.

Local Gallery Opening Receptions and Events for February

Gallery 10, Sutter Creek

“Three Artistic Visions”

Gallery 10 is delighted to show the artwork of three member artists together in a single show during March. A reception will be held in their honor on Saturday, March 7, 2-5pm, and everyone is welcome!

Catherine Woodruff is a collage and watercolor artist who enjoys both media, using watercolor to represent floral designs and collage to express her love of birds and other animals.

Joanne Dedge is a watercolorist who has experimented with many media over the years but has become committed to watercolor. Her bird paintings and especially her depiction of cats are highly sought after.

Marie Martz-Mort came to Gallery 10 with 19 years of experience as a bench jeweler apprentice. She has continued to experiment and hone her skills as a jeweler, using fine stones and, in many cases, 14K gold.

Sutter Creek Gallery, Sutter Creek

“Telling Stories Through Art”

Sutter Creek Gallery is relocating from 35 to 51 Main Street in the heart of Sutter Creek. We will open at our new location in early March featuring abstract artist Annie Hughes. For as long as she can remember, her hands have been making, whether mud pies or cutting paper dolls. Through taking a class in color and design while getting a degree in education, she fell in love with art and being an artist. Free time from teaching found her taking painting, fiber and textile classes. Today she creates original paintings that incorporate acrylic paints, oil pastels, hand-dyed rice paper, stamping, and original personal writings on canvas, paper, hardboard and furniture.

High School Student Art Show

This annual event is sponsored by ACAA to showcase artwork from the local high schools. Students' best work is submitted and then judged, this year by artist and ACAA member Julie Trail. The work will be hung at the Amador County Arts Council gallery during the week of March 23 to 27. The gallery will be open from 2 to 6 p.m. each day. On the 27th, prizes will be presented during a reception from 4 to 6 p.m. The gallery is located at 617 South Highway 49, Jackson.

Come out to see this outstanding show and support our young local artists. In the past, some of these have gone on to win our scholarships.
